1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy was approved by the school patron on 15th September, 2020. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Kildare Place School admission process are set out in the school's annual admission notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Kildare Place School is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of the Archbishop of Dublin and Glendalough.

Kildare Place School is a co-education primary school under Church of Ireland management. The Archbishop of Dublin and Bishop of Glendalough is the school's Patron. KPS is the parish school of the United Parish of Rathmines with Harold's Cross and the Rector is the chairperson of the Board of Management.

The school has been situated on the Rathmines Campus for over 50 years and is a co-educational, 8 classroom teacher school with one class at each standard. It currently has 5 support teachers and one SNA. Kildare Place School is a community where the traditions and teaching of the Church of Ireland inform the position taken in regard to moral issues which arise in the teaching of secular subjects. The school endeavours to promote the moral, spiritual, emotional, intellectual, physical and social development of all the pupils in its care. The school reflects the ethos of the Church of Ireland values of love, honesty, charity, kindness, patience and personal responsibility for growing in faith are encouraged. Equally it encourages and practises respect for the traditions and teachings of other churches and spiritual communities.

Time spent teaching Religious Education is per Department of Education guidelines. All pupils generally take part in Religious Education lessons. The 'Follow Me' programme (developed by the Church of Ireland, Methodist and Presbyterian Boards of Education) is used throughout all the classes. Apart from Confirmation classes, the teaching of Religious Education in this school does not involve religious formation or specifically confessional teaching as this is a matter for each family and their Church. However, the parish can offer this on request. The school holds a weekly assembly which is facilitated by the Principal and the Rector. Also, being a parish school, pupils take part in church services and other parish initiatives. Similarly, special events take place in the parish church building, Holy Trinity Rathmines, to mark religious festivals and celebrations e.g. Christmas, Harvest, Graduations, etc.

The constitutional right of parents to withdraw their child from Religious Education is acknowledged. However, the attention of parents is drawn to the fact that due to accommodation constraints and the limited availability of staff, a child who is withdrawn from RE may have to remain in the classroom for the duration of the lesson. Children of other faiths and none are welcomed and affirmed. Kildare Place School is a community where all pupils are equally valued and respected – irrespective of gender, social or ethnic background, family circumstances, educational achievement, physical characteristics or intellectual capacity.

The work of the school is conducted in an atmosphere of inclusion, tolerance and respect for religious differences. The admission policy of the school allows those of other faiths or none to enrol as pupils. Kildare Place School values and recognises the contribution that pupils of different faiths bring to the life of the school.
